DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Generally, claim 1 is ambiguous. The preamble is directed to a method for detecting alert conditions. The first two limitations, receiving an electronic quote and comparing the quote lack any nexus to the subsequent limitation "transmitting an alert". Moreover, the transmission is said to be in response to the new quote, yet the conditions for the alert are not claimed.

Also in claim 1, how does the transmitting of an alert result in a locked condition.

Similarly, hoe does transmitting an alert result in a crossed condition. (Note: The NASD prohibits brokers from crossing a market deliberately.

In claim 2, the limitation on "crossing quotes" is vague and indefinite.

In claim 4, it is not clear where in the method of claim 1 the updating takes place.

5. In response to this requirement, please provide the names of any products or services that have incorporated the disclosed inventions competing in the same space as that of the claimed invention, notwithstanding any priority dates.

For those claims expressed as means or steps plus function, please provide the specific page and line numbers within the disclosure that describe the claimed structure and acts.
